

Awards

So you think you've earned a Grammy?
Do you think your Emmy brought you true respect?
Will you mail it back home to family,
An award will make you feel important, or perhaps the best in the land.
The true fact of the matter is...it's a distraction to what really is at hand.

Everyone wants an award. Everyone wants to be rewarded.
Grammy, Emmy, a Global, a Raspberry, a Moonman, etc. - what the hell

I'll reward you with praises and a plaque or two. Maybe give you applause to prove who is better than who.

I'll buy you a diploma, which I found on Ebay.
It says you are a doctor who studied in Bombay. Hey - hey - kudos to you

So you think you've earned a Grammy?
Do you think your Emmy brought you true respect?
Will you mail it back home or will you sell it on the phone will you hold it alone, like a dog with his bone

Everyone wants an award now. Everyone wants to be rewarded.
A Grammy, an Emmy, a Global, a Raspberry, a Moonman
Let's give them all an award.
